Maid In California Is Giving Away A “Clean House” To (4) Four Orange County Military Families

Orange County, CA -- Maid in California would like to honor 4 Orange County military families by giving them the gift of a clean house for the holidays. This contest is open to immediate families of all branches of the armed forces. There will be four clean houses awarded: one to each division of Army, Navy, Air Force and Marines.

Requirements:

The contest is open to all armed forces families who have a husband or wife currently on active duty outside the United States or someone who has served in the military in the past.

Submissions are accepted in essay format (300 words or less) describing why they deserve to be chosen to receive a clean house for their military branch.

Families must be residents of Orange County, California

The deadline for submissions is November 30, 2009

The Clean House is NOT transferrable.

Essays are to be submitted to: Maid in California, via email at: maid@maidincalifornia.com.

Winners will be announced December 1, 2009 and their homes cleaned by January 31st, 2010

“This is just our way of appreciating and giving back to those families who have sacrificed so much and who are struggling even more during these hard times.” said Deborah Kerr, Owner of Maid in California. This reality has recently become even more personal as Kerr’s sister in law has recently returned from Iraq. “My sister-in-law went to Iraq for a year, leaving behind a worried husband and 2 beautiful young boys. I saw first hand how the whole family suffered. It is for four of those families that I would like give the gift of a clean house for the holidays, it’s the least I can do.”
